CKC Now Seeking Three Directors

As previously announced, Center for Knit and Crochet (CKC) is seeking new Directors to fill open positions on its Board of Directors. CKC plans to add two new directors to the Board, bringing the total number of Directors to eleven, and to replace one current Director who will be leaving the Board at the Annual Meeting in May of 2024.

CKC's Directors serve to support and accelerate CKC's growth in membership, services, digital resources, activities, and programs. New directors will have exciting opportunities to extend CKC's social media reach and influence, increase membership and member participation in all aspects of CKC, and coordinate and create CKC's monthly newsletter, a vital communication for CKC's members and donors. We welcome you to apply with other relevant experience, talents, and interests.

Please share news of these volunteer leadership opportunities with anyone who has an interest in CKC and/or pertinent skills and/or experience in these areas. Visit our website at <https://centerforknitandcrochet.org/apply-for-board-service/> to learn more about serving on CKC's Board and to apply online.

Direct any questions to the CKC Nominating Committee at nominations@centerforknitandcrochet.org.

About Center for Knit and Crochet, Inc.

CKC's mission is "to preserve and promote the art, craft, scholarship, and history of knitting, crochet, and related arts." CKC provides the public with free access to its online museum -- a gateway to hidden digital collections of knitting and crochet, and to CKC's original collections, exhibitions, programs, and educational resources. CKC exists entirely online and is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. CKC is committed to creating an inclusive and welcoming environment and community for all.
